Event End Date	04-06-2022
Description	Blood Donation Campaign: The Gift of Blood is a Gift Of Life organized by Anwarul Uloom College Of Business Management. Blood donation camp: The gift of blood is a gift of life and can help save countless lives. We urge everyone to come forward and donate blood to support this noble cause.

On 04-06-2022, A Blood Donation Campaign: The Gift of Blood is a Gift of Life is an event organized by healthcare organizations, government bodies, or non-governmental organizations to collect blood from volunteer donors. The gift of blood is a gift of life, as blood is essential for various medical treatments, surgeries, and emergencies. These camps aim to create awareness about the importance of blood donation and encourage people to donate blood. The collected blood is then stored and used to meet the demand of patients in need of blood transfusions. These camps provide a platform for individuals to contribute to the welfare of society and save lives.

- The objective of a blood donation campaign is to encourage people to donate blood and raise awareness about the importance of blood donation.
- The gift of blood is a gift of life, as it can save the lives of people who are in need of blood transfusions due to medical emergencies, surgeries, or certain medical conditions.
- The main objective of the campaign is to collect a sufficient amount of blood to meet the demand and ensure the availability of safe blood for patients in need.
- The camp also aims to educate people about the benefits of blood donation, dispel myths and fears around the process, and encourage regular blood donation to help save lives.

Date: 30/11/2021

Time: 10 a.m. to 11.30a.m

Venue: College Seminar Hall, ANWARUL ULOOM COLLEGE OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

No of Participants: 99

An interesting talk was delivered by Mr.Shadab Alam on the subject, "Financial Literacy- A Must for every Woman," at the College Seminar Hall, ANWARUL ULOOM COLLEGE OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT He enlightened the audience about the need to value time. He said that it is difficult to achieve financial literacy in the complex Indian Society. This is due to unexpected educational emergencies such as loans, mortgages, credit cards, online shopping etc. In spite, of this, he claims that the number of benefits is in store for us if we are financially literate. The benefits of financial literacy will offset the difficulties of achieving it.

He emphasized that financial literacy for women is an important aspect of their independence. He has given valuable insights about the significance of financial independence for every woman. He stressed that women's financial independence has the tendency to contribute to equal partnership and healthier relationships, and ultimately a happy family which may eventually lead to shared responsibility and mutual respect between partners. He presented key steps to aid financial literacy:

1. Create a budget plan
2. Track spending activities both online and offline
3. Pay -off debt
4. Plan for retirement

Name of the Program: Equity vs Equality – An Empathetic View

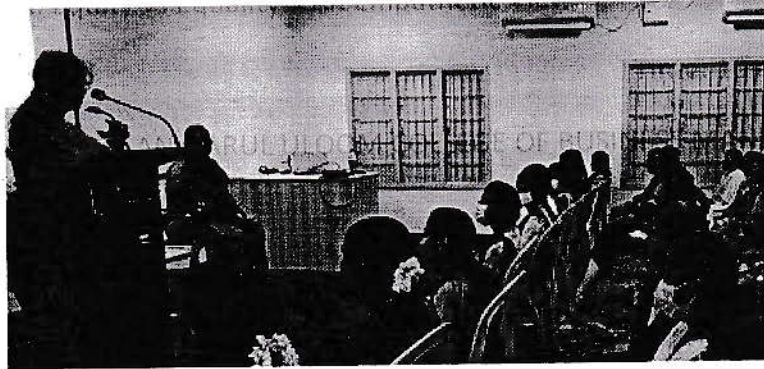

Date: 9/07/2018

Time: 10 a.m to 11.30a.m

Venue: College Seminar Hall, ANWARUL ULOOM COLLEGE OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

No of Participants: 95

An informative speech was delivered by Dr. Mrs. Shobha Rani on the topic "Equity Vs Equality – An empathetic View" on 9/7/2018 at the College Seminar Hall, ANWARUL ULOOM COLLEGE OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT. The speaker delivered at length on the complex subject. She made the audience understand the subject and its implications on the rights and duties of women on par with the men by Dr. C. Shobha Rani. She said any situation can be properly dealt with when women are educated. She said equity leads to equality.

In order to come into the ambit of equity women must be industrious and lose no opportunity to develop skills. Each person lives and grows surrounded by different circumstances, resources and opportunities. Such circumstance may be social, economical or physical abilities. Equity recognizes such different circumstances and provides a level playing field for both men and women, which in turn speaks of equality. She said equality is indispensable for building a peaceful and prosperous society.
