Dr. Osman Bin Salam an Alumni of this college conducted a three day workshop on Safeguarding the Digital Data from 15 to 17 November 2021.

The program "Safeguarding the Digital Data" by AUCBM ALUMNI Dr. Osman Bin Salam was held from 15 to 17 November 2021. The program aimed to provide students with comprehensive knowledge and skills in cyber security.

Day 1:

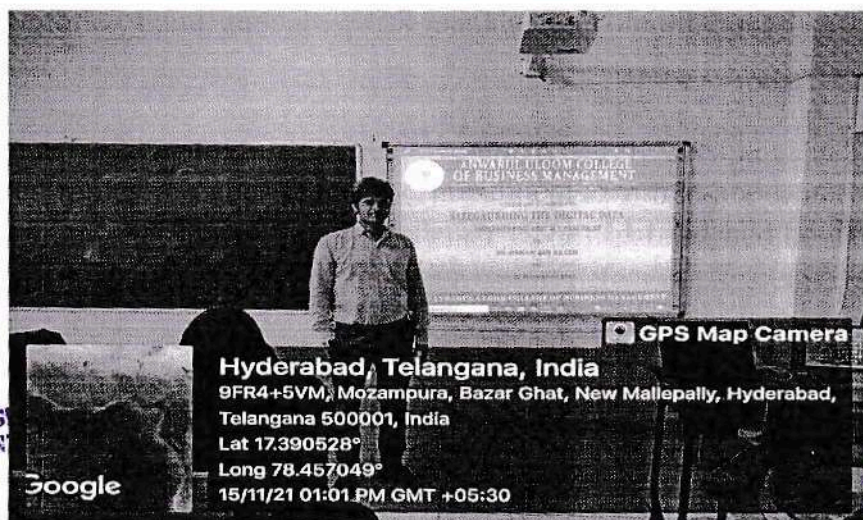

The program began on 15 November 2021 with an introduction to cyber security. Dr. Osman Bin Salam started the program with the basics of cyber security, including types of cyber threats, cyber security measures, and security frameworks. The students learned about security policies and standards, risk management, and incident response.

Day 2:

On the second day of the program, on 16 November 2021, Dr. Osman Bin Salam covered more advanced topics in cyber security. The students learned about network security, web security, cloud security, and mobile security. They also learned how to secure their systems and networks using firewalls, intrusion detection systems, and antivirus software.

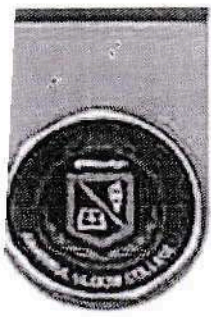

Day 3:

Third day on 17th November was devoted to question and answers, Dr. Osman Bin Salam patiently answered all the queries pertaining to safety and security of the data. It was then followed by the valedictory function. Dr. Y. Vinodhini gave the vote of thanks.

Mrs. Raheemunnisa an Alumni of this college along with Mrs. Shahnaaz conducted a five day workshop on the soft skills. The topic was Time Management – A soft skill tool on 02.03.2020 to 06-03-2020.

The objective of time management as a soft skill tool is to enable individuals to make the most effective use of their time. This includes setting clear goals, prioritizing tasks, and using strategies to manage time effectively. The ultimate goal is to improve productivity, reduce stress, and achieve success in both personal and professional life.

Here are some specific objectives of time management as a soft skill tool:

- Increase productivity: Effective time management helps individuals to focus on high-priority tasks, eliminate distractions, and maximize productivity.
- Reduce stress: Good time management skills can help reduce stress levels by enabling individuals to better manage their workload and avoid last-minute rushes to complete tasks.
- Achieve goals: By prioritizing tasks and allocating time accordingly, individuals can achieve their goals more effectively and efficiently.
- Improve work-life balance: Effective time management helps individuals to balance their personal and professional lives, leading to a better quality of life overall.
- Enhance decision-making: With proper time management, individuals can make better decisions, as they have a clear understanding of their priorities and can allocate time accordingly.

Overall, the objective of time management as a soft skill tool is to help individuals optimize their use of time, leading to increased productivity, reduced stress, and greater success in their personal and professional lives.

Dr. Osman Bin Salam an Alumni of this college conducted a five day workshop on soft skill development along with Mr. Mohammed Aijaz. The topic was Leadership- A Soft skill to build Personality conducted on 11.02.2019 to 15-02-2019.

The objective of leadership as a soft skill is to build a strong and effective personality that can inspire and motivate others towards achieving a common goal. Some of the key objectives of developing leadership skills include:

- To develop effective communication skills: Good communication is an essential aspect of leadership. The ability to communicate effectively with others can help you build strong relationships, motivate your team, and achieve your goals.
- To develop problem-solving skills: As a leader, you need to be able to identify problems and come up with effective solutions. Developing strong problem-solving skills can help you make informed decisions and overcome obstacles in achieving your goals.
- To develop delegation skills: Effective leaders know how to delegate tasks to the right people. Delegation skills are crucial in ensuring that everyone in the team is working towards a common goal.
- To develop decision-making skills: Leaders need to make difficult decisions quickly and effectively. Developing strong decision-making skills can help you make informed decisions that benefit your team and achieve your goals.
- To develop empathy: Empathy is an important leadership trait that helps you understand the perspectives of others. By developing empathy, you can build stronger relationships with your team and motivate them to achieve their full potential.

Overall, the objective of leadership as a soft skill is to build a strong personality that can inspire and motivate others towards achieving common goals. Developing strong leadership skills can help you become a more effective communicator, problem solver, decision maker, and delegator, and create a positive impact on the people around you.
